Queerposium is an ever-evolving series of playful, engaging and enlightening events for LGBTTIQQ2SAP* folk and the people who love us. Did you hear about Bussed Out!?!#%? The day-long interactive, queer bus tour last fall? That was us! We have a lot of fun bringing together different people from all over the local queer and trans communities. We're looking for some smart, fun, funny, queer positive, savvy innovators to join us in the creation of the next Queerposium, in May 2013. Come play with us on the day, be a presenter, volunteer, donate an item or service, or sponsor us by making a financial donation. Or, if you're really into it, roll up your sleeves and jump in, if you start now you can design the whole event with us, from the ground up.

Queerposium works to create safer, pro-accessibility, anti-oppressive and 'no one turned away' events. (You can find our safer space guidelines on our website at: queerposium.org). We strive to be in solidarity with all constituents of queer and trans communities, we encourage inclusive, cross-community engagement. We like to dress up and dance (although you don't have to if it doesn't do it for you). We find silly fun in almost everything. ;)

Queerposium organizational meetings are held in accessible spaces with gender-neutral single use washrooms. Scheduled meetings will be posted at: www.queerposium.org. If you would like to join us, please do. Everyone is welcome. To get involved please fill out this form using acrobat reader (download it here: www.get.adobe.com/reader) save it and email it to: hello@queerposium.org, by Mar. 10th, 2013. We will contact you promptly. Or if forms really bug you, just email us. Our next organizational meeting will be on Mar 14th at 7pm at AVI, 713 Johnson Street 3rd Floor.
